Discuss IT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

Answer: These problems are starting to occur now of all times because people have access to the media which twist the words of the president. The media may make the president look bad or create a way for multiple people who don't like him to have a way to communicate and protest. If many more people get bent out of shape over every little thing that happens then the country may be split into groups. The wall on the southern border may also cause more problems including people protesting and calling him and racist.
